

Online Course UK01 Excellence in Primary Music

This course looks in detail at the skills, knowledge and understanding that pupils need to develop in order to progress in music. It is designed for anyone teaching music in a primary school setting following the English National Curriculum, whether specialist or non-specialist.

Excellence in Primary Music (UK01)

Objective

Understand how to deliver the Primary National Curriculum for Music in England.

Content

In this course you will consider each skill area of the National Curriculum for Music in detail: performing, listening, composing/improvising, and understanding. You will consider the latest research and pedagogy in each of the areas, as well as the most recent recommendations made by Ofsted in relation to the teaching of music. You will discover ideas for practical activities, and share tips and techniques for planning and assessing these. Finally, you will look at how all of these skill areas can be put back together to create an integrated approach to the curriculum.

Structure

The course is structured into seven sections. Each section contains a mixture of online reading & research, video and audio materials, and interactive quizzes. The course is designed to be completed at your own pace, and if you wish to you have the option of submitting a short assignment in order to receive a completion certificate.

1. Forethought – setting the course in context
2. Performing – singing and playing at KS1 and KS2
3. Listening – listening & appraising at KS1 and KS2
4. Creating – composing & improvising at KS1 and KS2
5. Understanding – notation and history of music for KS2
6. Integrating all the Skills – constructing a curriculum
7. Conclusion – Review of learning

Outcome

On completion of this course you will be able to deliver the National Curriculum for Music in England, in line with Ofsted's most recent recommendations and the most recent education research and pedagogy.
